Program Abstract

Say it with Style (Sue Bauer)

We all have been called upon to speak publicly at one time or another. Think back: how many times have you heard someone say this or something similar, "I'll help with the program; just don't ask me to make a speech?"

If this describes YOU, relax! Our speaker today will provide tips regarding

- 1) how to calm the butterflies when public speaking,
 - 2) how to construct a well-organized speech, AND
 - 3) how to ensure you leave your audience begging for more!
